5. During the COVID-19 crisis, how are you coping? Are there ways we can be supportive of you?
	Taking Road Trips
	Doing Driveway and Lawn Visits
	Lots of Text and Calls to Folks
	ZOOM PODs (2) and Sunday Service
	Staying Home and Limiting Contact
	Good (2) Doing Fine (2)
	I think you are/have been doing everything you can.
	I am coping well with the exception of seeing the devastating effect this virus is having on the mental, social, economic and especially the health of Americans.
	Daily Devotions, Meditation
	Prayer
	Family Contact
	Work, Exercising
	Reading
	Wear mask, gloves, hand sanitizers & wash hands (4)
	Going to grocery store only when necessary.
	ZOOM Doctor Appointments
	We limit our exposure
	Stressed a bit by isolation from friends and loved ones.
	Coping the best we can.
	With the expected rises in the coming months is worrisome to me.
	Coping by staying in touch by phone/virtually with family and friends (3).
	Just do what you do!
	FCMCC Peeps already are doing all that could be asked

9. Is there anything you want your lay pastor or BOD to know?
	Hang in there.
	Pray we can see each other soon.
	Good job.
	I am grateful for you.
	Keep up the good work.
	How could we safely conduct communion? I don't feel comfortable with someone handing me a wafer with or without a glass. (2)
	Thanks to everyone on the BOD for keeping the church ongoing during difficult times.
	I love you all.
	Keep following CDC Guidelines, no assumptions on anything. Crowds are the most prevalent carrier of the virus.
	That you are doing an awesome job.
	I am grateful for all your efforts! Thank you!
	Doing a Great Job - Thanks!
	I think there is a need for transparency in every aspect of FC MCC and I believe you are adhering to that. Though only a few participate in ZOOM on Sundays, I think the social gathering play an essential role in feeling 'a part of it'. Virtual Sunday service and POD are nurturing.
	I applaud all of you - the lay pastor, VM, BOD. for your realizing or having input for the 'need' of a person in the capacity of Pastor Renee.
